U.S. Air Force A lot of your time in basic military training will be spent standing around in formation outside of the dining facility or other buildings. During this time your MTI will usually tell you to study your "memory work" which is a few sheets of paper containing various information that you have to memorize by the end of basic training. If you memorize a few of these things before you even arrive at BMT, it will only be that much easier on you while you are there.
