Meeting Across the River - Wikipedia
Surprisingly good collection of short stories all with loose tie-ins to the 1975 Bruce Springsteen song Meeting Across the River. Plots are varied settings but usually include Eddie, Cherry and rivers to cross; sometimes the pawned radio is mentioned, and usually the plots result in things not going quite as planned, just as one imagines the song would end if it continued.

Meeting Across the River by Jessica Kaye - Goodreads
Bruce Springsteen's song "Meeting Across the River" is the inspiration for this collection of 20 short stories, all based on the few clues of the song: a man named Eddie, a woman named Cherry, the need for a ride, a chance to make some money, a meeting across the river and a sense of desperation.
