1. Count the quarters: Start out the "easy" exercise by counting the quarter notes in unison with your metronome like this, " 1 2 3 4 1 2 3 4?". In the medium exercise as eighth notes are introduced count " 1 and 2 and 3 and 4 and ... " or just the quarter notes. Experiment with what helps you best.

Sight reading is the ability

File Type PDF Rhythms Music Sight Reading

~~Exercises~~ to see a new piece of music and play it correctly on the first time. The most important reason to practice sight reading is to learn music quicker. If you can play the piece rhythmically and melodically correct on the first time, you can spend more time on the details of the music, such as dynamics and emotion. After you practice sight reading, you will be able to show up to an ensemble's rehearsal and already know your part.
