sequenced dress, etc, etc.) and punctuation mistakes were atrocious and too frequent to ignore. They were on every single page. "Randal" became "Randle" on numerous occasions, retelling of her old stories weren't punctuated properly, and I didn't know where one conversation ended and another one ...

Chapter 2 I woke later than I had wanted to. I had so much to get done yet, and here I was still in bed at almost nine. I wasn't sure what time the exhaustion had finally won, and I fell asleep, but I did feel rested. I walked out to Lauren's living room, and it was empty. Her bedroom door was opened, so I peeked in, it was empty too.
