Five years after a "limited" nuclear war, two survivors journey across America. They and you will discover what is left of our way of life: the depth of the devastation and the hopes of a new society desperately struggling to be born. From Edward Kennedy to Playboy magazine, readers have praised Warday as an absorbing, suspenseful novel and an important book for every American to read. "A first-rate novel, as real as snapshots of tomorrow. And as scary." New York Daily News "Haunting and horrifying and engrossing and an all too believable look at what could be the future." United Press International "Disturbingly plausible and its vision of postnuclear chaos exceeds 'The Day After'." Newsweek "Imaginative and entertaining reading." Boston Herald "Frightening and controversial and a futuristic thriller." Chicago Tribune

The year is 2025. Immense numbers of people swarm the globe. In countless, astonishing ways, technology has triumphed but at a staggering cost. Starvation is rampant. City dwellers gasp for breath under blackened skies. And tottering on the brink of environmental collapse, the world may be ending. It is a future that could well be ours. In their second shocking and fascinating portrait of America's possible destiny, Whitley Strieber and James Kunetka have again written a breathless thriller, a book that gives us an important warning and ultimately a message of hope.

The searing new novel from bestselling author Strieber explores the unthinkable but very real possibility of terrorists launching a nuclear weapon.

She finds it in the beautiful Sarah Roberts, a brilliant young scientist who may hold the secret to immortality. But one thing stands between the intoxicating Miriam Blaylock and the object of her desire: Dr. Tom Haver...and he's about to realize that love and death to hand in hand.

It is time for the truth to be told... On July 2, 1947 something crashed in the desert outside of Roswell, New Mexico. An explosion of light and sound made the sheep wail, the chickens squawk, and the children scream. And then the ranchers heard a noise they thought could only have come from the devil himself. For forty years, Majestic Agency director Wilfred Stone helped the CIA pretend the landing never happened. Then his conscience got the better of him. This is the real story, told to reporter Nicholas A. Duke by the guilt-racked shell of the man who once worked tirelessly to cover it all up. It is a truth
